

The National Telecommunications Regulatory Agency (ANRT) published the 9th edition of the annual National Survey on Information and Communication Technologies within households and individuals for 2012.

Launched in the first quarter of 2013, the 2012 survey monitors both the trends in the telecommunications market and some of the changes taking place in Moroccan society where uses are progressing, especially with the democratization of the Internet and the increasing growth of social networks.

- Read the press release
- Download the survey results
- Download the summary in French/English

Retour

Source URL: <https://www.anrt.ma/en/lagence/actualites/anrt-publishes-results-2012-annual-survey-ict-use-morocco>