

ANRT, INPT and the Moroccan Association of Information and Communication Technologies (AMTIC) organized, on February 28, 2019, the 1st edition of InnovEnsSup'19, at INPT under the theme "Pedagogical innovation in higher education in the digital age".

This 1st edition dealt with three aspects: innovation, pedagogy and digital in the presence of national and international experts. This initiative was undertaken as part of the implementation of the INPT roadmap adopted in December 2017 and AMTIC's contribution to initiating debates and exchanges on such topics in the academic field.
