

Under the High Patronage of His Majesty King Mohammed VI, may God assist Him, the Competition Council, the National Telecommunications Regulatory Agency (ANRT) and the Digital Development Agency (ADD) are organizing from 09th to 10th November, 2022 in Marrakech, an international conference on the theme: "Digital Transformation: between regulation and competitiveness".

This conference deals with the challenges of digital transformation on a global scale and its impact on regulation and competition. On the program, various themes such as: regulation of markets and services, the press and neighboring rights, the digitalization of finance, the centrality of data in digital markets and access to data.

Read the program.

Read the press release.

Retour

Source URL: <https://www.anrt.ma/en/lagence/actualites/international-conference-digital-transformation-between-regulation-and>